SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC.

Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 14s., in paper covers; 16s., bound in cloth.

IN the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musicians. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.

THE PSALTER (pointed for Chanting) with the best Chants in Score, with Organ Accompaniment: arranged for the use of Cathedral and other Choirs, by S. S. WESLEY, Mus. Doc., Organist of the Cathedral and College of Winchester, &c. 8vo., Price 10s. 6d. quarto, (out of print, a new edition preparing)—Small copies for Congregations, 3s. 6d. This Work is found to effect the most distinct and excellent mode of Chanting the Psalms.

Winchester, April 1, 1851.

MY DEAR SIR,—I gladly comply with your request, that I would express in writing my opinion respecting your Psalter.

You are aware of the pains I had taken, and with how little comparative success, to improve the Chanting of the daily Psalms. The adoption of your Book accomplished the improvement I had long aimed at, working an entire reform in this part of the Service. It is not easy to over-rate its utility. In the first place, it appoints good Chants, and excludes bad ones, thereby saving the trouble of making a daily selection. The choice of suitable Chants (I must add), in consequence of the dearth of unexceptionable Compositions of this kind, was, notwithstanding the largeness of our collection, a matter of some difficulty.

But the especial advantage of your Work consists, I think, in placing the music together with the words, in one volume before the Singers, and enabling them, by means of the accents which you have introduced, to speak the same word together, so as to be readily followed by the Congregation. There is no longer any hurry or indistinctness on the part of the Choir, nor any uncertainty about the Organ accompaniment.

These important results I believe to be unattainable without such assistance as is furnished by the admirable arrangement adopted in your Book; and, from my experience of its value, I should rejoice to see Dr. Wesley's Psalter introduced into all our Cathedrals.

Believe me, my dear Sir, your's very truly,

W. NIXON HOOPER, Precentor of Winchester.

FULL ANTHEM, "Great God of all, holy Creator," BEETHOVEN. Selected and arranged from the Pianoforte Sonata, Op. 97, for the use of Durham Cathedral, and respectfully dedicated by permission to the Honble. Mrs. Hamilton Russell, of Brancepeth Castle, by CHARLES ASHTON, of the Durham Cathedral Choir.

To the Parish Choir and Family Circle, this Anthem must prove equally acceptable, as it is alike remarkable for grandeur, devotional feeling, and simplicity.
